

HIV Client Advisory Committee (CAC) FAQ

What does the HIV Client Advisory Committee (CAC) do?

The HIV CAC provides advice and feedback on gender-affirming care services at Hive Health Services. The Committee provides input, feedback, and recommendations, addressing the specific needs of the community while promoting inclusivity and health equity.

What does an HIV Client Advisory Committee (CAC) member do?

As a member, you will:

- Review information on the HIV services offered at Hive Health Services
- Provide feedback on how we can improve care
- Be a voice for clients and equity-deserving communities
- Share ideas to inform strategic planning for HIV care

What is the commitment?

- Members will serve a term of minimum one year, with the option to renew each year for up to three years.
- The Committee will meet at least four times per year, and there may be opportunities to participate in additional activities, such as community outreach, between meetings.

Who is eligible to apply to be a member of the HIV Client Advisory Committee?

We are looking for community members who:

- Are at least 18 years old
- Have used, are currently using, or intend to use HIV care services at Guelph CHC.
- Want to improve HIV care for all.
- Want to ensure that Guelph CHC provides high-quality, culturally responsive HIV care in an inclusive and supportive environment.

Why should I apply to be a member of the HIV Client Advisory Committee?

Your experiences and perspectives can shape the future of HIV care at Hive Health Services.

Hive Health Services is committed to creating a diverse HIV Client Advisory Committee that reflects the communities it serves- particularly transgender, non-binary, Indigenous, Black, and other equity-deserving populations.
